

C-Core Member Job Description

Qualifications

- Be 16 to 18 years old
- Have an expressed interest in the broad range of career pathways in the residential construction industry
- Willingness to commit the time required for participation, including availability to communicate with an assigned Coach and Intermediary on a regularly scheduled basis via e-mail, phone, text message and/or social network; and participation in face-to-face activities
- Completion of an application form
- Submission of a Consent/Release of Information form signed by a parent/legal guardian
- Commit to participating for 12 months

Responsibilities

- Have weekly contact with your coach, with at least 2 face-to-face meetings per month
- Participate as a member of a group with two other members
- Provide feedback about the activities
- Work on achieving specified goals
- Participate in planned community service activities
- Complete surveys and feedback forms and participate in focus groups

Benefits

- Learn about careers available through the residential construction industry
- Receive support in pursuing your career/job and education goals
- Form lasting relationships with adult role models and peers
- Contribute to the well-being of your community through community service projects
- Engage in a range of interesting activities that help develop leadership skills and support both your career and personal interests